CRISIS IN THE SUDAN

Mr Salem Azzam, Secretary General, Islamic Council, requests the pleasure of your company at a press conference on Monday 3 July 1989 at 3 p.m. in the Johnson Room of the London International Press Centre, 76, Shoe Lane, London EC4.

The crisis in the Sudan shows no sign of abating and is daily claiming innocent lives and inflicting widespread misery and suffering.

Due to the lack of factual information, much confusion and misunderstanding surrounds the genesis of the crisis and its escalation to the present proportions. These need to be removed so that the correct steps can be taken to resolve the crisis. The conference will be addressed by the following personalities towards this end.

General (Retd) Joseph Lagu

Leader of Anyana II and co-signatory of the Addis Ababa Accord. Former Vice President of the Republic of Sudan. Presently roving Ambassador of Sudan.

Mathew Abur

Co-founder of Anyana II, SPLA and President of the Council for the Southern Sudan; former Minister of Education and Speaker of the Southern Region Assembly.

Phillip Obanj

Founder of the Sudan African National Union; former Commissioner of Upper Nile province.

Andrew Mulwal Leeh

Advisor for Economic Affairs Council for the South.

Mohamed Abbas Faqiri

Senior member of the Ummah Party and Advisor to the Prime Minister on Southern Sudan Affairs.

Osman Khalid Mudawi, M.P.

Senior member of the Islamic National Front.

Ali Al-Haj Mohammed

Former Minister of Commerce, and executive member of the Islamic National Front.

We look forward to welcoming you to the press conference.
